Quebec Association of Post-secondary Students with Disabilities (AQEIPS)
The bursary programs were established in order to motivate students with special skills to persevere in the pursuit of their studies. In addition to the existing bursary programs, there are other programs available specifically to people living with disabilities. These bursaries are intended to encourage people to pursue their studies at the post-secondary level and to highlight their commitment towards the community. These rewards are offered both at the provincial and federal levels.
