English test information (QA)

Who needs it?

- All students who are not currently studying in English need to write the English test.

May I request an exemption?

- Yes, if you fall under one of the following categories you may request an exemption by checking the box on the other side and supplying the requested documents.
    - Studied in an English institution for at least a year in a regular program - grade 6 and up (include copy of your latest report card from that school);
    - Come from an English background (along with a copy of your report cards, write a letter explaining/outlining your situation);
    - Taken or are presently registered in a Secondary IV or V English Language Arts (or equivalent) course with English grades of 80 and over in all language competencies (please attach copies of your latest provincial results (MELS) and Secondary IV and V school report cards - highlight your English grade);
- Exemption requests must be submitted by March 1, 2020 to be considered.

How much is it?

- The fee is $35 (this is in addition to the $30 Application Fee).

Where and when is it?

- The English test is written at the college located at 790 Nérée-Tremblay, Québec;
- The English test can be written on one of following dates at the time specified (please complete and send us your form to reserve your place):

    - Saturday, February 8, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. in room 348
