Consequences and penalties (IPESA 5.4.1 & 5.4.2)

The consequences for students found guilty of cheating and plagiarism, and the penalties which follow, will vary depending on the context of the incident. If the student chooses to avail himself of the right to appeal, the implementation of these sanctions will be deferred until a decision on the appeal has been rendered.

Cheating: "Students found guilty of cheating by their teacher in an evaluation activity will receive a grade zero for that activity." – IPESA, p. 20

Plagiarism: "Students found guilty of plagiarism by their teacher may receive a grade zero for that activity, given the context of the incident." – IPESA, p. 21

The student has been informed by MIO that this report has been filed with the Dean of faculty.
