

Law 14 and French Courses

Starting in Fall 2024, the latest installment of Law 14 will be in effect. This final phase will impact the previous progression of two French as a second language courses and/or will require that courses usually taught in English be taught in French. Depending on your eligibility to study in English and, for certificate holders, on your level of French, here are the impacts:

Certificate holders	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 5 French as a second language courses
Certificate holders who are proficient in French	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2 French as a second language courses • 1 program course in French • 1 general education course in French • 1 complementary course in French
Non-certificate holders	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 3 French courses (preparation for the Épreuve uniforme de français) • 1 program course in French • 1 general education course in French Some students in this group may have to take a remedial French course before commencing the above French course sequence.

For more information on certificates, please consult the Ministry of Education's website.